lion francs in the construction of the new warships after the war, the report of the American Maritime Commission which was Commission.

loss of the world's merchant marine during the year 1916 was

'SHORT SALES' BEING INVESTIGATED LEAK INQUIRY

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Brokers here believe that the modifications made in the House Rules for their records in the investigation will result in inquiries into the records of "short sales" which will make unnecessary the names of the customers whose opera-

Graph and telephone comes to furnish their records

York and Washington during the 13 day investigation.
Inquiry will be resumed today.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The House committee will not attempt to

DAYTONA VS. MIAMI BASKET BALL GAME AT ARCADE TONIGHT

LARGE CROWD NEEDED TO DE-FRAY EXPENSE OF BRINGING FINE SOUTHERN EAST COAST TEAM TO CITY.

Tonight at 8:00 and tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 there will be fast and exciting games of basket ball between the two best teams in the state of Florida, the Miami high school team and the team of Daytona high.
Both games promise to be thrillers in every sense. Miami has won practically every game it has played this season: so has Daytona. Therefore the public may know what kind of a contest to expect. The state championship of Florida high schools will be practically settled by these games.
The local team needs the presence and support of a big crowd not only for encouragement which is always welcome, but to help pay the expense of $115, which is incurred by Daytona in bringing the Miami team here.
The place is the Arcade, North Beach street; the time is 8:00 Friday night and 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

WAR SUMMARY

The Germans stormed the French trenches over approximately a mile front near Hill 304, on the Verdun front, Berlin announces. The French counter-attack during last night failed to drive the Germans out. The Germans took about 500 prisoners.

Paris says the German attack was delivered at four points between Avocourt Wood, on the extreme left of the French lines, about Verdun, and Dead Man's Hill. This covers an area of more than three and one-half miles.

German advances in the Riga region on the Russian front are reported from Berlin. The report says the Russian positions are taken on both sides of the River Aa. The Germans are apparently striking for Riga. Berlin said the Germans took 500 prisoners.

IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED IN A FEW DAYS

SUCH IS FEELING IN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—While no details are obtainable there is a growing disposition in Washington diplomatic circles to expect important peace development within the next few days.
Pressure from Austria-Hungary and Turkey for an end of the war is believed to be growing imperative.

REPORTS IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—It is reported in financial circles that it is likely Germany will come out with peace terms in the near future and that they will probably be reasonable.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—It is four degrees above zero here. The

DEFENSE IN SPANNELL MURDER TRIAL RESTS

SAN ANGELO, Texas, Jan. 26.— The defense rested today in the case of Harry J. Spannall, charged with killing his wife. Testimony was introduced to bear out Spannall's story of yesterday and show that Lieutenant-Colonel M. C. Butler, whom Span-nell is also charged with killing, was known among his soldiers as "Bull" Butler. The state has begun its rebuttal.

MADE FINE CATCH OF FISH AT SPRUCE CREEK

B. H. Smith, F. S. Riley and H. R.
Bauers constituted a successful trio of fishermen Thursday, bringing home about a dozen fine bass and trout as a result of their day's sport on Spruce creek. They motored down to the Spruce creek bridge in the morning and were met at that place by Capt.
B. J. Pacetti, of Ponce Park, in his launch and cruised up the creek for a distance of eight or ten miles. The day was all that could be desired and the fish responded nicely so the combination afforded an enjoyable outing and some excellent sport. The fish secured ranged as large as seven pounds and made a fine looking catch.

REFUSES TO PUT UP $50 FOR LICENSE SO PAYS $50 FINE

PEDDLERS, ARRESTED FOR SELL-ING GOODS WITHOUT LICENSE, SPEND NIGHT IN JAIL AND PAY FINE IN MORNING.

An excellent example of the dispatch with which itinerant peddlers are handled in the city of Daytona, was seen this morning when Nick and Chas. C. Harb, two Hebrew peddlers of lace goods and women's fancy apparel, pleaded guilty to selling goods without a license and were fined $50 each in city police court before Judge H. T. Titus. Daytona is trying its best to keep all such peddlers from even coming into town and wants to be known as a danger point to all undesirable business agents.

Chief of Police T. O. Milton saw the two men when they alighted from the afternoon train Thursday and at once noticed their suspicious actions.
They alighted from the side of the passenger car away from the depot and, carrying large bundles, went out Volusia avenue to Palmetto Park.
They then brushed the dust from each other's clothing, separated, and started selling their goods from house to house along Charles street. After an hour and a half of canvassing, the peddlers were arrested by Chief Milton and brought to the city hall where they were told that they must buy a fifty dollar license if they wished to continue their business. They begged to be sent out of town on the next train, promising never to come back, and asserted that they had no money.
At this Chief Milton swore out the two warrants before City Clerk Milligan and told the peddlers that they must put up a bond of $50 or spend the night in jail. They said again that they had no funds or any way to get them and were then placed in jail, their bundles of valuable laces being taken away and held at the city hall.

In the afternoon Chief Milton found that the men had four trunks at the P. E. C. depot filled with many hundred dollars worth of clothing and lace. Accordingly, he went to the jail and offered to hold the trunk checks as bond until the trial if the men wished to spend the night elsewhere than in jail. They pleaded

AVIATOR MAKES NEW RECORD IN BRINGING DOWN ENEMY PLANES

PARIS, Jan. 26.—Lieutenant George Guynemer brought down his 26th enemy airplane yesterday, the war office announced.
Yesterday the war office announced that the same aviator had brought down his 27th airplane, the greatest number brought down by the French aviation corps.

PROJECTILES TO BE "MADE IN AMERICA"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Secretary Daniels today began preparations for the manufacture of American navy projectiles in the Government plant, as the result of the refusal of the British government to permit Huddell, Limited, to do the work according to the contract recently awarded to them by the American government.

MRS. BYRNE GROWING WEAK FROM FASTING

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Ethel Byrne is gradually growing weaker as the result of her hunger strike. She started Monday to serve 30 days for teaching birth control. She has fasted nearly 90 hours.

George W. Osborne and sister, Miss Alice Osborne, of Windham, Greene county, N. Y., arrived through from Jacksonville, and will spend the season here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Osborne, of Windham, at their winter home, 510 South Palmetto avenue. Miss Osborne is a talented vocalist, with a charming soprano voice, which Daytona residents and visitors will no doubt have an opportunity of hearing during her sojourn here.

again that they had been punished severely enough and asked to be forcibly ejected from town.

However, they spent the night in jail and when brought to court in the morning, thought that they had been more than sufficiently punished by the cold turn taken by the weather last night as the jail does not have steam heat. Judge Titus gave them a last chance to purchase a license and when they refused, fined them the cost of such a license and they were informed that they could not obtain a license now if they wished. Rather than serve the alternate 60 days in custody and at work on the city streets the men have telegraphed to friends in Jacksonville for the money with which to pay their fines.

Spanish girl, little Irish lass, Swiss maiden and others too numerous to mention, will be seen for the first time in "Silks and Satins." This beautiful photo romance produced by the Famous Players Film company, will be shown at the New Daytona on the Paramount program Saturday. The Famous Players have carefully selected for this petite star a cast, scenes and director, J. Searle Dawley, that make this production stand foremost among feature photoplays.

In this unusual romance Miss Clark is a modern girl who is to marry a certain young dandy against her wishes. Through the careless maneuvering of a table, a drawer is dislodged which had heretofore been unseen, revealing a diary with an avenue of escape from her predicament inscribed in it by an ancient relative, of the Eighteenth century, who had been in a like predicament. The plot is a combination of an old love story with one of modern origin. Little Felicite, the stellar figure in both romances, portrayed by Miss Clark, reads the following love affair from the newly discovered diary:

To avoid meeting the man chosen by her father to be her husband, Felicite abandons her maid's garments and runs gaily down the road. Her beauty attracts the attention of Henri the son of the Marquis de Sagan, and a relative of the family. Bent on marrying the girl, Henri embraces her.

SAVORY VEGETABLES.

ESCALOPED CORN.—Make sauce with two cups of skim milk, four tablespoonfuls of flour, a tablespoonful of butter, a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of finely chopped celery, a dash of cayenne pepper. When the white sauce is done add to it the following: A cupful of corn, two cups of grated cheese, three egg yolks (beaten). Fold in the beaten whites of the three eggs. Put into a baking dish, sprinkle breadcrumbs over the top and bake in a slow oven for thirty minutes.

Fried Eggplant.—Peel and cut the eggplant into strips. Make a thick batter and dip each piece separately and fry in deep hot lard. This dish should not be kept standing, as it is likely to become tough. Serve on a very hot platter.

Corn Chowder.—Peel and slice thin onions enough to make a pint, boil an hour, add one-half pint of potatoes, cut in dice, and boil ten minutes longer. Fry brown a slice or two of salt pork, cut in small pieces; add fat and all, then add a pint of corn, fresh or canned; boil ten minutes longer, add salt and pepper to taste, a pint of milk, a cup of cream or butter size of an egg. Do not let the cream boil.

Grilled Eggplant.—Cut the eggplant into slices, arrange it on a platter, sprinkle with salt and pepper and pour over them a liberal portion of olive oil. Let the dish stand half an hour, then grill the pieces over a hot fire.

Asparagus and Macaroni.—Cut into small pieces one bunch of asparagus. Cook in salt water till tender, then add two tablespoonfuls of butter and one-fourth box of macaroni which has been cooking in salt water. After both have cooked together fifteen minutes add one-half teaspoonful of sweet cream and pepper to suit the taste. This is fine served on fresh, crisp lettuce.

Jacques, a soldier of fortune, passing by on horseback, comprehends the situation and rescues her from Henri's clutches. She is grateful to her savior and love results as time progresses. Etienne, to whom she is engaged, leaves for Paris, while on his journey her father succumbs to a heart attack, and Felicite is taken to the home of the Marquis. Etienne hears of her plight, but is too cowardly to fight for her; therefore, he proceeds to search for a swordsman who will rescue his bride for him. In a gaming house he witnesses the expert swordsmanship of one of the men in disposing of an undesirable character. He offers the young gentleman a sum of money to rescue his bride. The soldier of fortune, who happens to be Jacques, is proud of the opportunity to be of service in such a worthy cause. He departs for the Marquis' chateau, without knowing that he is to save his own sweetheart.

What follows is of vital interest to Felicite, who, upon completing the diary, determines to pursue the course set for her by her ancestor.

Emmett Dalton, the last of the outlaws, who terrorized Kansas and Oklahoma twenty years ago will be at the Arcade theater Monday.

"THE BLACK BUTTERFLY" AT THE CRYSTAL THEATER

Sonia Smirnov is a beautiful and brilliant woman, singing the role of "The Black Butterfly" in the opera of the same name at the Folies Bergere, Paris. Lord Brailin, at a gathering of prominent men, is astounded by their enthusiastic toast to "The Black Butterfly," and Girard, of the army arranges to introduce him.

While the toast is being offered, Don Luis Maredo breaks in upon "The Black Butterfly" in her dressing room, declares his love, and is dismissed. He goes to a telephone, calls her up and when he hears her voice kills himself. Despite the tragedy Sonia appears as usual at the evening performance and then goes to her home, where she receives a letter from her daughter, Marie, who is in a convent. This letter leads to a reverie of her past life. As a Russian peasant girl she had met Gaston Duval, fallen in love and gone with him to Paris, where they went through a marriage ceremony which she afterward was led to believe was a mock one. Her love for Gaston turned to hatred, she became a wanderer, was taken in by some nuns, and there her child, Marie, was born. Leaving Marie in the convent, Sonia went to Paris and became an operatic star.

Thus her reverie ends, and she gives way to silent grief. The next day Lady Constance Brailin breaks in upon Sonia and accuses her of having won the love of Lord Brailin. To show the accusation is unjust, Sonia has Brailin meet her after the play while Lady Constance is in hiding, and the star tells him she wants their acquaintance to end. Brailin is then led away by Lady Constance. Meanwhile a romance breaks in upon the life of Marie, the convent girl. Alan Hall, automobiling near the convent meets her and they fall in love. Alan, who is a friend of Girard and Lachaise, returns to Paris and there, in an Apache dance hall, meets Sonia, who is on a slumming tour with her manager, Berge.

Sonia falls in love with him. He thinks of Marie and tells "The Black Butterfly" that he must leave Paris, but she, not knowing of his other love, dissuades him. Then Alan writes to Marie that he will not see her again, and the convent girl puts a note to Sonia that she intends ending her life "The Black Butterfly", on receiving this, races to the convent, arriving there just as Marie is being dragged unconscious from a lake into which she has thrown herself. Embracing the girl, Sonia discovers a photograph of Alan, learns of Marie's love and returns to Paris and dismisses Alan.

Pickles, Kingans sliced bacon, fourteen kinds of cheese, French-made thing he puts up—Kraft's full cream cheese, Fox River butter, Golden Premium hams, National Biscuits line, Johnson's Edgewater, Blue Label catsup.

When you think of good things to eat, think of Pappy's Guava Jelly. Every woman knows there is knack in cooking. With the same materials and same recipe different cooks produce different results. This is perhaps truer of preserves, which are eaten more for their flavor than for their food value, which is important if the fruit acid be pure. The Guava, which grows to its finest perfection on the Indian River below Daytona, is insipid as a fruit, but as a jelly it develops, when properly made, a distinctive piquancy of flavor which places it easily first among table confections. It is, however, the most difficult of all jellies to make, to bring out this flavor and still retain its solubility. Some preserves, in fact, claim that it cannot be made firm with the guava juice and the sugar alone, and it is only too true that most of the so-called guava jellies have very little of guava taste. We have special houses in which to send Pappy's Guava jelly by express and parcel post. We are as near you as your telephone. Call 61.

When scientists began to take a closer look at the birds, they found that the songbirds were not just singing for the sake of singing. They were singing for a purpose. The songbirds were singing to attract a mate. The songbirds were singing to defend their territory. The songbirds were singing to communicate with each other. The songbirds were singing to express their emotions. The songbirds were singing to tell the world that they were there.

CONGRESSMAN FINLEY DEAD

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 26.— Congressman Finley died this afternoon of pneumonia.

A little story in the Morning Hotel News, woven about the interesting figure of Major M. F. Davis, U. S. A., president of the New York Military Academy at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, is the result of a renewed friendship which in turn brought the major his heart's desire so far as his trip to Florida is concerned. Soon after Major and Mrs. Davis arrived at the Prince George hotel to spend the season, a reporter of the News, while interviewing Major Davis, learned that his hobby was duck hunting and when the story appeared in print, R. T. Dur-ret, of Louisville, Ky., learned that the president of his Alma Mater, the New York Military Academy, was in Daytona for his first visit. Mr. Durrett called on the major and immediately an old friendship was renewed and plans were made for a hunting trip, which materialized a week ago.
Mr. Durrett and his guest left on the yacht "Virginia" for the lagoon, forty miles below Daytona, where they spent a week devoting the time wholly to the major's favorite recreation. The success of the trip was attested by the ducks bagged and by the major's beaming face when he spoke of his trip yesterday. Mr. Durrett, who with his mother, Mrs. W. T. Durrett, is a regular visitor to Daytona during the season, states that his trip this season will be memorable because of the renewed friendship.

Patience.

Patience is the courage of the conqueror, the strength of man against destiny—of the one against the world, and of the soul against matter.—Therefore it is the courage of the gospel; and its importance, in a social view, and to races and institutions, cannot be too earnestly inculcated.—Bulwer.

Wasted Effort.

Comb and brush in hand, a Pittsfield (Mass.) man sat in front of a mirror and fussed and fumed trying to prevail on a refractory hair to lie down. He resorted to water—then to oil, but all without avail. The hair simply wouldn't behave. Finally he looked a little more closely and discovered that the "hair" was a crack in the plaster behind him.

Her Patience About Gone.

Helen was fond of playing outdoors and a series of rainy days had tried her patience severely. She had been sitting by the window hopefully watching for signs of clearing, but the downpour continued. At last she exclaimed in a tone of mingled reproach and disgust: "Well, God, I should think you would be tired of this yourself."

Playing Safe.

A woman says she loves to play solitaire because she can cheat without getting caught at it.—New York Telegraph.

Problem of Health Solved.

More than half of preventive medicine centers around the kitchen. The cook is the arbiter in large measure of the ceaseless battle between life and death. Given good food, pure water, plenty of fresh air, and cleanliness of person; and the problem of good health is solved. With these, all that is further necessary is reasonable hours and exercise.

Has Proof.

"I don't see any sense in this old joke about women shopping all day and not spending a cent," scoffed the bachelor. "Of course, you don't," said the married man sadly. "There isn't any sense in it; because it's a lie.
I've been married ten years and I've got receipted bills to prove what I say."

For Preserving Fish.

A method for freezing fish, patented in Denmark by immersing them in a cold liquid, is claimed to preserve them in more perfect condition than salt freezing, as the flesh is not dried nor broken by ice crystals.

COLLEGE MEMBERS OF BOWEN FAMILY TO STAY IN DE LAND

Word has been received from Herbert Bowen, of DeLand, a former resident and schoolboy at the beach, that he will remain in the county seat to continue his work at Stetson university in spite of the fact that transfer of his father, Rev. H. H. Bowen, to the pastorate of the Mt. Dana Methodist church. The many peninsula friends of the Bowen family will also be pleased to hear that Miss Olga and Joyce Bowen will also remain in DeLand to attend college, where they are all doing well.

Young Mr. Bowen is again a member of the Stetson debating team which defeated many other state teams last year and will debate Duval county team at DeLand on next March 10th.
The question to be argued is Resolved, That Capital Punishment Should Be Abolished, and the Stetson team has the negative. He is also a member of the Stetson glee club which is noted all over the state for its good work in music.

The Daytona Beach council meeting which was to have been held Thursday evening was postponed until tonight to suit the convenience of some of the members.

AFLOAT AND AWHEEL, PROVES TO BE AN INTERESTING LECTURE

The lecture, "Afloat and Awheel," given by Dr. Guy C. Lamson at the Daytona Beach Methodist church Thursday evening was full of interest to those who attended. Owing to threatening weather not more than 125 people came to hear the talk.

Dr. Lamson told how missionary boats and cars are being used in parts of the United States to spread the Christian religion and gave many illustrations of the good work that has already been done. He was an excellent speaker and his descriptions of actions and work were very vivid and realistic.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL NOW BEING PRINTED

The "Sand Crab", the annual which has been put out by the Daytona Beach-Seabreeze high school for the past five years, will make its sixth appearance from the shop of Burman Bros., printers, in about two weeks' time.

The editorial staff of the paper has done much work toward making the sixth edition the best that has yet been published. Besides much good literary matter, the "Sand Crab" will contain many good photographs of the various school boys and girls.

Problem of Health Solved.

More than half of preventive medicine centers around the kitchen. The
cook is the arbiter in large measure of
death. Given good food, pure water, plenty of fresh air, and cleanliness of
hours and exercise.

Wasted Effort.

Comb and brush in hand, a Pitts-
field (Mass.) man sat in front of a mirror and fussed and fumed trying
down. He resorted to water—then to
the plaster behind him.

Her Patience About Gone.

Helen was fond of playing outdoors
sitting by the window hopefully watching for signs of clearing, but the downpour continued. At last she exclaimed
in a tone of mingled reproach and

Mrs. Nathaniel C. Sears, president of the Palm Beach club, entertained Mrs. William Jennings Bryan at "Laurel Lodge," her beautiful home on Peninsula drive during her stay at Daytona, coming to deliver an address on suffrage.

A Lesson in This.
The advertising manager of one of America's largest mail-order houses recently told a large convention of advertising men that his company maintains a bureau whose duty it is to read, each week, the weekly papers from all over the country. This bureau looks over these papers, and when it finds a town where the merchants are not advertising steadily in the local papers that town is immediately flooded with literature. It always brings results far in excess of the same effort put forth in territory where the local merchants constantly use their local papers."

Unusual Value in Silverware

Beautiful silverware is not a luxury or an extravagance. When here, its first cost is distributed over so many years by its long use, the cost per year becomes insignificant.

And the original cost is brought to an unusually low figure by the store. That is a matter of wise selection on our part, made of interest. We have searched the markets for silverware worthy of patronage, and of our store, to be sold at prices which make an inspection of our present offerings will interest you, whether you are ready to make purchases at once, or wish to defer it.

THE CLARENDON

It is frequently too hot to golf; there are days when a tennis court is as alluring as a far cry in July; there are even days when a bathing suit excites one too intimately to the rays of the sun, but it is never too hot to dance—especially if one dances in a ball room overlooking the sea, and can stroll between dances on a veranda swept by breezes fresh with the intangible fragrance of the sea. Guests at the Clarendon have but one diversion for after dinner and that is dancing. Groups may motor for a few minutes on the beach, but the ball room is the inevitable rendezvous after eight o'clock and is invariably filled with dancers, who remain until the good-night waltz is played.

Mrs. J. C. Carter, of Summerville, N. J., who has been a guest of the Clarendon for some time, has abandoned her plan to lease a cottage for the season and will remain at the hotel, finding her surroundings altogether delightful. Mrs. Carter, accompanied by maid and chauffeur, made the trip from New Jersey to Florida by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stephens and two attractive children, Mrs. W. H. Wood and interesting child and Miss Stanford, of Charlotte, N. C., arrived Wednesday and have taken a suite at the Clarendon, where they will remain for the next several weeks.

An incoming arrival noted Wednesday at the Clarendon was R. Wilkins, of Rochelle, Md., who comes to Daytona to enjoy a series of fishing and automobile trips and is here for a stay of some duration.

Seabreeze is proving unusually popular with New York visitors this year, the latest addition to the winter colony from that state being D. Barron, who is a guest at the Clarendon.

Mrs. Philander R. Jennings and maid, of New York City, are among the incoming guests of Wednesday at the Clarendon. Mrs. Jennings visits Florida for the first time this season, and finds the picturesque tropical scenery of Daytona a delightful novelty.

A luncheon party noted at the Clarendon Wednesday was composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sims, of New Haven, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Van Dyke, of New York City.

Among the interesting guests registering at the Clarendon Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Root, Miss Root, Miss Deborah Root, and Master C. A. Root, Jr., of Cambridge, Mass. "It is our initial trip to Florida," said Mr. Root yesterday, "and, coming directly from Massachusetts where the country is blanketed with snow, it seems strange to enjoy surf bathing in January."

A party of prominent Tennessee people, who are recent guests at the Clarendon, is composed of Mrs. E. B. Hurlburt, Mrs. G. M. Davis, Mrs. W. E. Davis and D. L. Hurlburt, of Chattanooga. Mrs. W. E. Davis has spent several seasons at the Clarendon and is delighted to return. The trip from Tennessee to Florida was made by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. O'Reilly arrived Wednesday from Lynchburg, Va., and will spend some time at Seabreeze as guests of the Clarendon.

Mrs. B. Armstrong, accompanied by her charming daughter, Miss Frances Armstrong, and son, Jesse Armstrong, will arrive tonight from their home in Rome, N. Y., to spend the season at the Clarendon hotel. For the past seven winters Mrs. Armstrong, with her son and daughter, has been a season's guest at the Clarendon and their arrival will give an added impetus to the brilliant life of the resort.

Mrs. George Batten and Miss Batten, of New York City, are among the guests at the Clarendon who will spend their first winter in Florida. They will be joined later by Mr. Batten, who is president of a well-known advertising company of New York City.

Mrs. E. A. Tipton, of Lexington, Ky., who has been the guest of Mrs. J. P. Gleen, of the Seaside Inn, for the past week, has returned to Jacksonville, where she will join Mr. Tipton. From Jacksonville Mr. and Mrs. Tipton will go to the west coast to Crystal Lake for the season. Mr. Tipton is an ardent follower of the rod and reel and goes to Crystal Lake to enjoy the excellent fishing there.

Mrs. Philander R. Jennings and maid, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sims, New Haven, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. O'Reilly, Lynchburg, Va.; Mrs. E. B. Hurlburt, Mrs. G. M. Davis, Mrs. W. E. Davis, D. L. Hurlburt, Chattanooga, Tenn.; R. W. Wilkins, Rochelle, Md.; D. Barron, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Root, Miss Root, Miss Deborah Root, Mass.

FRIDAY MORNING MUSICALS AT THE PALMETTO CLUB

Friday morning musicals at the Palmetto club are fast becoming the most popular diversion of Daytona's music loving residents and tourists.

Recently William Parker and his compositions were the subject Friday morning under the leadership of Miss Arnette Pearson, who very delightfully gave a concise and complete paper upon the composer. Miss Pearson treated the subject in a splendid manner, reading in a clear and well modulated voice which could be heard very distinctly in all parts of the auditorium. Several fine numbers of the composer's works were given to illustrate the ability of Parker who is Professor of Theory Music at Yale. E. Von Schumacher two piano numbers of Op. 10 were delightfully given showing the unusual ability of the young pianist. The prelude to "Hora Novissima," sung by Miss Frances Barber was well received. Miss Sparber has a charming voice which is very expressive and clear. Miss Alice Briggs' accompaniment on the piano and her "Prelude to Hora Novissima" was well received. Mrs. Redmond Wharton, whose splendid soprano voice is well known to the club members rendered two selections. Especially good was the number "Suite for Violin and Piano Op. 35," by Maurice H. Kirk and Miss Lillian E. Smith. Mr. Kirk plays his violin with all the fervor of the true violinist, his expression and coloring superb. Miss Smith showed by her execution that the piano is her forte, her technique unusually fine.

The next musicale will be given at the clubhouse on February 9th at 10 o'clock in the morning. The works and life of E. S. Kelley, a former resident of Daytona, Mrs. Stillman leader.

*Tomoka River excursion, 9 A. M. tomorrow. Steamer Seminole.

Beware Self-Depreciation. By despising himself too much, a man comes to be worthy of his own contempt.—Amiel.

BI-PLANES UNLOADED FROM EXPRESS CAR

Much interest has been excited by the unloading at the F. E. C. railway depot of the bi-planes which will be tested out at Daytona Beach for the Standard Aero corporation of New York by O. M. Bounds, chief instructor of the government aviation school at Hemstead, L. I., who arrived Wednesday an registered at the Tourist hotel in this city.

The machines, which were expressed to this city, are closely crated and occupied an entire car, some crates being very large and heavy. The work of removing the machines from the car and transporting them to the ocean beach, where they will be placed in a tent hangar, is being done by Oscar Michael and the operation has been watched by quite a crowd of interested spectators.

MORE BRICK ARRIVES FOR THE CAR TRACK

ROAD WORK NOW PROGRESSING ON ORMOND-DAYTONA ROAD—SHELL BEING DELIVERED AT HOLLY HILL DEPOT.

Another car of asphaltic concrete brick arrived this morning from Tampa, being in reality the first car shipped from that city last week. The second car shipped having reached here yesterday. The brick is being delivered to a position opposite the News office and the work of laying them in the car track will be commenced at the south end of the line, opposite the city dock. Superintendent Carl L. Rose says the brick will now continue to arrive from Tampa until the shipment is complete. The work of laying the asphaltic concrete surface on the Daytona-Ormond road has advanced as far north as the W. H. Edmondson residence in Holly Hill and shell for the foundation of the road further north is being delivered at the railway station at Holly Hill, three cars being diverted to the side track at that place this morning. The cement curbing has been constructed well northward in Holly Hill.

No Wonder It Was.

Barber (entertaining his customer as usual)—"Your hair is getting very gray, sir." Customer—"I'm not surprised. Hurry up."

Young Men "Horse Shy."

The discovery is being made that many young men who have reached manhood in the last ten years do not know how to harness and attach the horse to the buggy, crank the beast, step on the horse starter, engage the clutch and get across the country under one horsepower.—Minneapolis Journal.
